MEMORANDUM

September 16, 2013

To: Gary Cannon

Executive Director

From: Virginia Crocker

Judicial Director

RE: MONTHLY REPORT

On September 4, all the pending Ullico cases were forwarded to the Jurisdictional Commissioner in that the stay has been lifted. The Parties in those cases which fall under mandatory mediation we notified and the department documented their mediation schedules.

The Commission's mediation workshops will begin in Charleston this month on September 26 in Charleston. We are encouraged by our reservations for the event which will be held at the North Charleston Convention Center.

Also, there will be an additional round of aggregate mediations in the Exide cases during the last week of the month.

The management of regulatory mediation has been progressing well and we continue to work with our constituents to facilitate a smooth transition with compliance with the regulation.

In reviewing the lag report for the past fiscal year, we are pleased to inform the Commission that the number of days to process a hearing request is twenty-four (24). The number of days to process an appeal is eighty-one (81).

Seventy-eight (78) days is the average number of days from the request to the actual hearing and one hundred and twenty (120) days is the average number of days from the request for review and the actual appeal bearing.

Annual Report FY2012-13

Attached is the information for the FY2012-13 Annual Report. The final report will be published on a one piece tri-fold document.

I am proud of the hard work and efforts made by the staff which resulted in these accomplishments and milestones this past year. Financially the Commissioned completed the year having utilized $425,585 of cash reserves. This is $82,481 less than originally projected. The cash reserve balance at the end of the fiscal year was $1.26 million.

It was a banner year legislatively. The General Assembly approved legislation to provide us with a stable funding source by allowing the Commission to retain fifty percent or no less than $2.2 million of the self-insurance tax collections. Also, the General Assembly approved the new regulations implementing mediation.

Service to stakeholders remains to be the primary focus of the Commission. Continuous improvement of organizational culture, active communication with stakeholders and responding to their requests and concerns through use of stakeholder ad hoc advisory committees, and partnering with business and governmental entities has enhanced the efficiency and effectiveness of the business processes and operations of the Commission.

Total cost of medical and indemnity reported for cases closed during the fiscal year remained relatively stable at $870.1 million compared to last fiscal year cost of $867.5 million, less than three-tenths of one percent (.3%) increase.

The trend of the total of indemnity payments continues to shift from the awards by the Commission to the amount by agreement of the parties. The total indemnity payments increased $2.1 million, less than .3% compared to last fiscal year. The amount of indemnity payments from agreements increased $5.6 million or 1%.

SCVRD/WCC Referrals

As the SCVRD counselor assigned to the Workers Compensation Commission, I held office hours at WCC for four (4) days in the month of August 2013.

During the August office hours, SCVRD has continued to review the Workman's Compensation Commission files for Richland and Lexington counties for 2012. With the continued implementation of the WCC Query program, twenty-seven (27) referral letters have been sent in August out to potential clients.

As of August 30th, 2013, six (6) potential WCC referrals have responded to inquiry letters:

- Four (4) referrals have been made for the Richland County SCVRD office and have opened cases
- One (1) attorney referral has been made for the Georgetown County SCVRD office.
- Onc (1) claimant responded and was not interested in VR services at this time.
- Three letters was returned with no forwarding address.

In regards to the SCWCC-SCVRD Portal, the site is in production mode and Area Supervisors are being loaded into the portal for use. Finalized date for presentation to the SCVRD Core Leadership team is scheduled for September 9th, 2013

Re:

Commission's Business Meeting on August 18, 2013

Dear Commissioner Beck:

It is my understanding that the Commission is holding a business meeting on August 18, 2013. Please allow this letter to serve as a request to have a specific procedural issue discussed at this meeting. The following will lay out the precise issue.

Frequently, my firm receives letters and/or subpoenss from claimants' attorneys requesting the production of medical records we have obtained from medical providers through the service of Form 27s. Our practice has been to file a Motion to Quash those subpoenss and until recently those motions were uniformly granted. As a result, we are seeking guidance as to how to proceed on this issue in the future.

Our position has been there is no obligation, whether that be statutory, regulatory, or case law, requiring my clients to produce records obtained from medical providers via subpoena. We have argued it is over burdensome to have our staff copy and provide opposing counsel with medical records opposing counsel could obtain from the medical provider directly. It is particularly burdensome because once a paralegal receives medical records in response to a subpoena, the paralegal removes duplicates, separates providers, discards bills, and places the remaining records in chronological order. As a result, by the time we see a subpoena or letter requesting those records, we do not have a complete copy of those records and they are arguably organized as work product. Further, it is not the policy of our firm to scan all medical records received in response to subpoenas into a digital format. Doing so for every attorney and every response to subpoena from medical providers received would likely require the hiring of additional staff and acquiring additional photocopiers. Overall, it would certainly require our offices to change their practices just in case they receive a subpoena or letter requesting production of medical records obtained through Form 27s.

I acknowledge claimants' attorneys have a concern that they are not receiving the same records I am receiving in response to subpoena. Although I have not seen that in practice, I imagine it has happened. However, I believe a middle ground could be achieved to assuage my concerns and opposing counsels concerns, if in response to being copied on a form 27 to a medical provider, claimants' attorneys would send a letter to that medical provider requesting they provide an identical copy to claimant's attorney. This would place the burden of production of these records on the medical provider, who is the true custodian of those records. Further, it should guarantee that opposing counsel receives an identical copy of those records.

As indicated above, every ruling that we have received on a Motion to Quash that we have filed in the past has indicated that we are not required to provide those records. Therefore, we have maintained that policy at our office. However, tast week, we received a different ruling from a Commissioner, which obviously makes us call into question our office policy. As this is a procedural issue, as opposed to an issue on the merits, it would obviously be in the best interest of the Commission and all parties involved for there to be uniformity with regard to this issue. That is the reason that we are specifically requesting that this issue be discussed and addressed at the business meeting, so that we can simply have a uniform, consistent rule and so that our firm can act accordingly in the future without the need to further litigate or argue these issues on a case by case basis.

Should the Commission uniformly determine defendants must copy and forward medical records received pursuant to a Form 27 to opposing counsel, there is the additional issue of cost. Medical providers charge my firm a $15.00 handling fee and $.65 a page to obtain these records. It is unclear what defense firms should charge opposing counsel for printing, copying, or scanning these records. Obviously, if the Commission recommends the middle ground with claimants' attorneys sending letters to medical providers requesting complete copies of the records provided in response to defendants' Form 27s, then the issue of costs is moot.

I have copied David Pearlman with this letter because I know this has been an issue that has concerned him as well. I wanted to provide him with the opportunity to share his viewpoint. Should you request our attendance at the business meeting, I suspect we would be happy to make that appearance. I greatly appreciate your attention and time to this matter.

With kindest regards,

Xmm 117

RE: Johnnie W. Baxley's, III, Esquire, letter dated August 6, 2013 Requirement to Produce Documents Received by Subpoena

Dear Chairman Beck and Commissioners:

Thank you for the opportunity to respond to Johnnie Baxley's letter of August 6, 2013. Johnnie is a good friend and respected colleague and I appreciate his including me to receive a copy of his letter.

I would offer the following comments in response to Johnnie's letter.

 There is a legal requirement to provide copies of records received pursuant to a subpoons.

The Commission has statutory authority to issue subpoenss for production of records under §§ 42-3-140 and 42-3-150. Reg. 67-214 governs the issuance of subpoenss and requires the use of a Form 27.

Form 27 provides for subpoenss for hearing testimony, deposition testimony, production of records, and to permit inspection of premises. In each instance the time and place for the testimony, production, or inspection must be specified. The Form 27 must be served on the opposing party or counsel giving them the opportunity to be present, examine the witness, receive copies of documents, or participate in the inspection of premises. Rule 67-214 and Form 27 do not provide for production of records without requiring an appearance by the Custodian of Records and, as currently written, requires appearance at a time and place set forth in the subpoera so that all parties or counsel can be present to receive copies of the same records.

I think everyone would agree requiring the Custodian of Records to appear to produce records would be burdensome and costly for all parties, counsel, and the Custodian of the Records. This problem has been recognized and fairly dealt with under the Rules of Civil Procedure. Rule 45(2)(A) of the South Carofina Rules of Civil Procedure provides for the production of records without requiring the appearance of the Custodian of Records but, in order to maintain fairness, the Rule specifically requires that, "A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena for production of books, papers and documents without a deposition shall provide to another party copies of documents so produced upon written request. The party requesting copies shall pay the reasonable cost of reproduction."

While Johnnie may argue the Rules of Civil Procedure do not apply in Workers' Compensation proceedings, I would point out that the Administrative Procedures Act specifically states the South Carolina Rules of Evidence do not apply. There is no such exclusion for the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. In many instances, the practice before the Commission adheres to the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. In fact, §42-3-160 states depositions "shall be taken in accordance and subject to the same provisions, conditions, and restrictions as applied to taking of like depositions in civil actions at law in the Court of Common Pleas..."

Furthermore, it should be noted that and §42-15-95(B)(3) provides upon written questions submitted by an insurance carrier, employer, or their respective attorneys "the employee must also be provided with a copy of the response by a health care provider."

With all due respect, I respectfully submit Johnnie wants the banefit of Rule 45(2)(A) so as not to require a Custodian of Records to appear at a specified time and place as required by a Form No. 27 subpoens, but does not want to comply with the requirements of the Rule Intended to maintain fairness by providing copies of documents received upon written request. Failure to provide copies of records to the opposing party as the Rule requires denies due process to the Claimant in contravention of Form 27 subpoens and violates and ignores the manifest intent of Rule 45(2)(A) and §42-15-95(B)(3).

Complying with Rule 45(2)(A) is already the established practice.

While I cannot comment on the internal workings of Johnnie's firm, I would point out to the Commission that every other Workers' Compensation defense firm including, but not limited to, McAngus Goudelock and Courie, ELC.; Gallivan White and Boyd,

P.A.; Turner Padget Law; Young Clement Rivers, LLP; Trask and Howell, LLC; Adams and Reesa, LLP (Formerly Ellis Lawhome and Sims, PA); and Collins and Lacy, PC, routinely follow the requirements of Rula 45(2)(A) and produce copies of subpoensed records upon written request. None have complained that doing so is unduly burdensome.

Johnnie suggests the responsibility of complying with the Rule 45(2)(A) should be shifted to the Custodian of Records or opposing counsel. Requests for records, especially medical records, are routinely routed to third party independent contractors who identify the records and submit a bit for payment before the records are copied and delivered. It would be virtually impossible to ensure all parties receive the same records unless the records are requested, paid for, copied, and delivered at the same time. The Commission has no authority over a medical provider or their third party contractors and, therefore, has no way of enforcing compliance by them.

Johnnie also complains that after his office receives medical records in response to a subpoens, his "paralegal removes duplicates, separates providers, discards bills, and places the remaining records in chronological order." Rule 45(2)(A) eddresses this problem and requires that a party requesting copies of the records must make a written request. In compliance with the Rule, it is the practice of my firm, and other Claimant's firms I am familiar with, to request copies of subpoensed records immediately upon service of the subpoens.

I suggest the easy solution to Johnny's concern would be for the Commission to require any request for copies be made within fourteen (14) days of the service of the subpoens. This will allow Johnnie's firm ample opportunity to make copies of records received pursuant to a subpoens before changing, separating, or making the documents part of his file.

iii. The producing attorney is entitled to a reasonable cost, but not to an exorbitant profit

Lagree with Johnnie that no law firm should be forced to incur costs producing records but, by the same token, claimants should not be saddled with having to pay unreasonable costs. Rule 45(2)(A) also deals with this problem by providing the party requesting copies shall pay the reasonable cost of reproduction.

Many medical records are now produced electronically end can be forwarded electronically at virtually no cost. Even hard copies made at a law office no longer cost 25 cents or 50 cents per page. I understand there may be some disagreement as to what constitutes a reasonable cost. I would respectfully suggest the Commission set a $15.00 handling fee, even for production of electronic records, and 15 cents per page for hard copies to adequately cover any cost incurred by the producing law firm.

Thank you again for the opportunity to make my comments. I do not claim to speak for the Claimant's ber and offer these as my personal comments. Please accept this letter in the good faith it is intended for the purpose of responding to the concerns relead by Johnnie's letter. If you desire anything further or wish to discuss this matter at the Commission's business meeting, please let me know.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely

David T. Pearlman

Notes to 1303 Amendments

Rain 45 is unieleded to comform to federal Pole 45, as mended in December 19th. The imajor purposes of that amendment, which are adopted here, are to simplify the procedure for insuling a subpoena and to clarify and enlarge the protection of non-parties who are ecopolled to angle the court in the generalings, as well as to facilitate accept to estertials without the necessity of a deposition. The federal rule made other changes in the methods of insuling subpoents a destricts other than gets in the methods of insuling subpoents a destricts other than the ere in which the action is panding which are not relevant to stars practice.

black of the practice romains the tunes including who may lerve the subporter, the right to object to production in writing, and to require the lateley party to obtain a court order before inspecting the detunionts. The major changes ire: (1) the afterney signs and issues the subptems on behalf of the court; (2) documents, materials or un inspection can be obtained from a non-party without obtaining a deposition; and (3) the mon-party's rights are expanded and clarified. In this centext, peragraph (a)(2) provides that a subpoence for trial in based by the court where the action is pending and under puragraph (h)(2) may be served throughout the state. The subprensed person may move where (c)(3)(A) to quash or madely the subposess in the issuing court, which is the court where the neston is proding, and may obtain ratiof if the adupoens requires everyl of shore than 50 miles from where the non-party residue, is employed or regularly transacts du sinces.

The rights of a non-party subpossed for a deposition are marged and clarified. Under paregraph (ni(f) the response for a non-party deposition, production or inspection is issued by the court in the county where the parson resides, is ampliyed or regularly transacts business, and served them. Under paragraph (ck3XA) the non-party can object to the subposes in his home county, if different from the piece where the action to pending. Finally, paragraph (c) makes clear that a subposes to a non-party for a deposition, importion or production, regularly travel beyond 30 miles of the county where the individual resides, is employed or regularly transacts business, provides an adoquate course for failure to respond, and avails a sunction for contempt.

The following protocols discusses each provision of the new rule. Paragraph (a)(1) defines the form of the subposes. It so longer requires that the subposes been the said of the court. Subparagraph (0) now requires that the subposes contain temposes of prographs (c) Protection of Persons Butject to Subposes, and (d) Duties in Responding to Soliposea, to clust the purson independed about the rights and obligations under Rubs 45.

Paragraphs (a)(1) and (c)(2)(A) paradi a unispects (or the production of documents as inspection without requiring a deposition. This adopts a common practice which was not outhorized by the prior rule which suspection from a pop-party. The last contents of paragraph. (b)(1) requires ten (10) days written action to other parties if production is requested without a deposition.

Paragraph (a)(2) states that the subpoens for total or hearing is issued by the court for the county where the petion is populary. A subpoens for a deposition is bested by the exactly where the deposition is to take place. A subpoens for the deposition of a non-party is issued where the non-party residue, is employed or regularly branches bisiness to permanasticity in the court that issues the subpoens is important because molitors to quash or ordered a non-party subpoens are brought to the lessing court which might be different from the court where the action is pending.

Paragraph (0)(3) provides that the chark is to fasce the subposes in blank if the subposes is requested by an interpresented party, but the attenues is also authorized to sign the subposes on behalf of any court in which he is licensed to practice. There is no requirement that the subposes been the seal of the court. The automaty right and itsness it as an affert of the court.

Paragraph (b)(1) defines who can serve a subposses and specifics that it is by delivery to the param subposses of sing with tendering the witness for and mileage. This clarifies the procedure for service.

Paragraph (b)(2) provides that subpoents may be served throughout the state subject to two emeptions. First, (c)(2)(A)(ii) requires the appropriate court to quash or modify a subpound on entert grounds. Second, a non-party subpoons cut only be hunsed and provide the county where the conparty resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in parson. Paragraph (b)(3) describes hour proof of service of the subpoent is to be made.

Paragraph (ck(1) states the duty of the attenues to omid under hurden on the subspectated person and entherizes the librating court to enforce this duty by imposing sometime instelling, but and limited to, but enthings and reasonable attenues/9 foot.

Paragraph (ci(2)(A) permits a subptem for the production of documents without the necessity of also scheduling a deposition. Ton (10) days written notice to other parties is required under the last contence of (b)(i) if there is no deposition. Kule 30 requires similar notice of all depositions.

Paragraph (c)(2)(8) is taken from farmer Rule 40(d) which sutherford a person subposped to object in writing to the production, and required the person analog the information to obtain a court order before inspecting the documents. This order is obtained from the court that issued the court in the court, in the court in the court where the non-party would be the court in the court, where the non-party resides, is employed or regularly transacts butiness in person, if different from the court where the action is pending.

Paragraph (c)(3)(A) states that the court shott quash or apolity the subposes if there is no reasonable time to comply, regulares exceeding triavel, calls for privileged initiarial or chlotes an under builder. Paragraph (c)(3)(B)(I) methorises the court to quash or modify the subposes if it requires disclosure of trade secrets. Sub-paragraph (ii) protects the intellectual property of unratined experts, while providing a means for chisining it if necessary, and the capart is property compensated. Paragraph (c)(3XB)(iii) such additional profession for witnesses subpossed for trial. The court may medify or quint the subposses if it requires exact over 50 while to attend the trial, unless the other party can demonstrate a substantial need for the information that could not be obtained otherwise without pulprantial hardship, and that the person test posses with a reasonably compensated.

Paragraph (d)(1) requires those served with the subposes to produce the decuments in the order in which they are last in the ordinary course of business or label them to commond to the enterports in the domand. This is the same requirement imposed on parties responding to a document request under Rule 34. Paragraph (d)(2) imposes a new abligation to express an objection to production on grounds of privilege by providing to discriming of the decomments or things set produced sufficiently to allow the claim to be contexted.

Paragraph (a) provides authority for the court to impass sanctions through the contempt power for failure to comply with a subpount. The paragraph does have a new sandamen that struce that it is an adequate excluse for failure to dempty with the subposess that it required a new party to appear at a deposition, permit inspection or produce materials cultoids of the gangraphical limits set by the rule.

Dear Chairman Back and Commissioners:

I sent to the Commission a tetter and attachment yesterday containing my responses to Johnnie Baxley's tetter of August 6, 2013. In my letter, I stated that it is common practice among Defense attorneys and firms to send copies of records received by subpoens upon written request.

Howell, III, Esquire requesting that Roy send to Mike copies "of any and all records received by you pursuant to your subpoenas..." As Indicated by Mike Chase's letter, this is even common practice between Defense firms.

SUBJECT:

Revised Employee Performance Management System (EPMS) Policy

In an effort to ensure the information contained in the Commission's position descriptions accurately reflects the work being performed by the employees, the decision was made to combine the position description form and the employee performance management system form. This will allow the supervisor to more accurately assess the employee's performance during the review period on the essential job duties. During the process of creating the combined form, the State Human Resources Department also issued an updated model EPMS policy. As a result, the Employee Performance Management System (EPMS) Policy, Section 2.15 of the Administrative Policy and Procedures Manual is being revised to reflect the newly combined position description (PD) and EPMS form and the model policy updates. Below is a summary of substantive changes.

- The planning stage now begins with ensuring the position description is current, and the PD/EPMS form serves as the planning stage document.
- Section VIII Summary of Appraisal Results in the PD/EPMS form requires justification for all reviews as opposed to previously only those receiving an exceptional performance review required justification.

Attached are the proposed EPMS Policy and PD/EPMS form. It is requested that the Commission adopt the proposed changes to EPMS Policy to be effective immediately.

Purpose

The Employee Performance Management System (EPMS) refers to the total process of communicating with an employee about their work. The process begins when the employee's supervisor (rater) and employee develop a performance plan in which they identify what is to be accomplished, what performance is expected, and specifically how it will be evaluated. This rater/employee communication continues informally with a day-to-day working relationship and formally at least twice: once at the midpoint of the appraisal and again at the end of the review period.

The EPMS-appraisal will be used to ensure honest two-way communication between employees and their raters, to support employee development and to create trust by communicating with each other what is strong and what needs improvement in each job area, to make leaders' expectations clear by telling employees the criteria for success, to provide training for employee and raters in feedback structure and techniques and to create incentive in both employee and rater by getting involved and sharing feedback about the work and the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission (SCWCC) business plan.

General Information

All performance appraisals shall be made in writing by the employee's supervisor (rater) who has direct experience or knowledge of the work being performed. The appraisal shall be reviewed by the next higher-level supervisor (reviewer), unless the rater is the Agency head, prior to the appraisal being discussed with the employee. The reviewer may attach additional comments to the appraisal, and in the attachment may take exception to the rater's appraisal. In addition, the reviewer has the authority to change the appraisal completed by the rater. If the reviewer elects to change the rating, the change and associated justification should be noted on the appraisal document. Whenever an employee's job responsibilities change significantly, the appraisal document should be revised to reflect that change. The final appraisal must bear the signature of the rater, the reviewer and the employee, if possible. If any party refuses to sign the appraisal, a notation shall be made on the performance appraisal of this. If possible, a witness should sign to acknowledge that the party refused to sign the appraisal.

All performance appraisals shall become a permanent part of the employee's official personnel file. Upon request, the Agency shall furnish the employee with a copy of the performance appraisal with copies of all pertinent attachments including the form completed at the time of the planning stage and the final appraisal form.

The provisions of this policy address the appraisal process of both probationary and covered employees. Although not mentioned specifically in this policy, employees exempt from coverage under the State Employee Grievance Procedure Act, shall also be given annual performance appraisals.

Universal Review Date

All Agency employees shall be reviewed prior to October 1, the Agency universal review date. The Agency will maintain the performance review date for each employee presently established in accordance with the State Human Resources Regulations, in the event that some compensation or personnel action is dependent on the individual's performance review date rather than the universal review date.

Training

Training is encouraged for all employees within the Agency in regards to EPMS. New employees should be briefed on the performance evaluation system during their orientation session.

Levels of Performance

There shall be three levels of performance to rate each job function and objective and to rate overall performance:

- Exceptional Work that is above the criteria of the job function throughout the rating period.
- Successful Work that meets the criteria of the job function.
- Unsuccessful Work that fails to meet the criteria of the job function.

Performance characteristics shall not be rated by the three levels of performance, but shall be given a rating of pass or fall.

1 Pass - Meets requirements.

Planning Stage

Each employee shall have a planning stage conducted at the beginning of each rating periodposition description that is reviewed at the beginning of the review period and serves as a planning stage. The employee's job functions (which include job duties and success criterial duties, objectives, and performance characteristics for the next rating period will be discussed at this time. These items, as included in the planning stage, are described below. The rater and employee should participate in drafting the planning stage document. The reviewing officer and the rater should discuss the requirements for the coming year prior to the planning stage. A rater may incorporate a team activity into the planning stage document. The team performance being evaluated could constitute a job function, an objective, or one criteria for a particular job function or objective. A rater may also link the employee's training plan to the planning stage document.

A. JOB FUNCTIONS DUTIES

The rater and the employee shall determine the job functions (which include job duties and success criteria) by reviewing the employee's position description. If the position description is not up to date, or if there is no position description, one should be prepared and submitted for approval duties. In those instances where the rater and employee cannot agree upon the job functions duties, the rater's decision shall be final. The statement outfining the job function duty should include descriptive information about the performance expectations (success criteria) of the rater. The descriptive statement should specify the expectations of the rater for the employees to be successful. Each job function duty shall be rated in the evaluation stage based on the three levels of performance. It shall be mandatory for all raters to be evaluated on the timely completion of each employee's performance appraisal.

B. OBJECTIVES

Objectives shall be optional for all employees. An objective should be included when the employee is assigned a special, non-recurring project or assignment that is not included on the employee's position description. The statement outlining the objective(s) should also include descriptive information about the performance expectations (success-criteria) of the rater. The descriptive statement should specify the expectations of the rater for the employee to be successful. Each objective shall be rated in the evaluation stage based on the three levels of performance.

C. PERFORMANCE CHARACTERISTICS

The Office of Human Resources will provide agencies with a list of suggested performance characteristics and their definitions. Each performance characteristic shall be defined in the planning stage and rated as "pags" or "fail" in the evaluation stage. The performance characteristics section shall be used as a communication tool to emphasize those performance characteristics that are important to success in performing the job functions duties and objectives included in the planning document. The performance characteristics section shall not be weighted in the determination of the overall performance rating.

It shall be mandatory for all managers and supervisors to be rated on the performance characteristic of "promoting equal opportunity." (Promoting equal opportunity includes such areas as hiring, promotion, or placement; level of personal and organizational commitment to equal opportunity; progress toward achieving a fully integrated and representative work force; and contribution toward minority programs and other social/economic equal opportunity goals.)

Ongoing Performance Management

A rater should continue to provide performance feedback to employees throughout the review period. An unofficial mid-year review is encouraged to facilitate this communication between raters and employees. In addition, various options are available to the rater in conducting performance management. A rater may gather feedback to prepare the appraisal document and/or conduct unofficial appraisals more frequently than required in this policy.

Probationary Period

Each new employee in probationary status shall be rated prior to the completion of a twelve month probationary period. The performance review date marks the beginning of a new review period. If that employee does not receive a performance appraisal prior to the performance review date, the employee will receive a "successful" rating by default and obtain covered status as a State employee and permanent status in the class. The probationary period may not be extended. If an employee is not performing satisfactorily during the probationary period, the employee shall be terminated before becoming a covered employee. Until an employee has completed the probationary period and has a "successful" or higher overall rating on the employee's evaluation, the employee has no grievance rights under the State Employee Grievance Procedure Act; therefore, the SCWCC is not required to follow the "Substandard Performance Process" to terminate a probationary employee. The "successful" rating is the equivalent to the "meets" performance rating referenced in the State Employee Grievance Procedures Act. A short year review and short year planning stage may be required to evaluate performance from the end of the probationary period to the universal review date.

Trial Periods

Each covered employee who has been demoted, promoted, or reclassified shall be appraised prior to the completion of a six-month trial period in the position. The performance review date marks the beginning of a new review period. If an employee does not receive a performance appraisal prior to the performance review date, the employee will receive a "successful" rating by default and obtain permanent status in the new classification, the employee retains permanent status in a class throughout the employee's continuous service. The six-month trial period may be extended up to 90 calendar days upon written notice to the employee prior to the end of the six-month trial period. The employee's performance review date shall be advanced for the time period such extension is in effect. A short year review and short year planning stage may be needed to evaluate performance from the end of the trial period to the universal review date.

The "Substandard Performance Process" is not required to demote or reclassify downward an employee in trial status to the same class from which promoted, if the demotion or reclassification occurs within the trial period. The "Substandard Performance Process" is also not required to demote or reclassify downward an employee in trial status to a class in an equal or higher pay band from which promoted, if the demotion or reclassification occurs within the trial period. The Employee in trial status may not grieve such demotion. The employee in trial status may not be terminated or demoted to a class in a lower pay band than that from which promoted for performance reasons without following the "Substandard Performance Process."

Annual Performance Reviews

All employees shall be given an annual appraisal no more than 90 calendar days prior to the performance review date. An employee on approved leave with or without pay for more than 30 consecutive workdays may have the performance review date advanced up to 90 days after those first 30 workdays. A covered employee who within 30 calendar days of his performance review date receives a "Warning Notice of Substandard Performance," shall have the performance review date advanced up to 90 days. The performance review date marks the beginning of a new review period. If an employee does not receive an appraisal prior to the performance review date, the employee shall receive a "successful" rating by default. A covered employee may not be issued an overall "unsuccessful" appraisal at any time during the annual review period without following the "Substandard Performance Process." Should the review date advance, the employee may require a short year planning stage and a short year review period in order to move the employee back to the universal review date.

Substandard Performance Process for Covered Employees

A covered employee is entitled to adequate notice of substandard performance and the opportunity to improve the substandard performance before receiving an "unsuccessful" rating and being removed from the position. To ensure this occurs, the following procedures shall be followed:

A. A rater shall issue a "Warning Notice of Substandard Performance" prior to issuing an "unsuccessful" rating to a covered employee. If during the performance period an employee is considered "unsuccessful", in any essential job function duty or objective which significantly impacts performance, the rater shall provide the employee with a written "Warning Notice of Substandard Performance." The warning notice shall provide for an improvement period of no less than 30 days and no more than 120 days. The warning notice may be issued at any time during the review period. Ordinarily, the warning period may not extend beyond the employee's review date. However, if the warning notice is issued less than 30 days from the employee's review date, the performance review date shall be advanced up to 90 days. Should the performance review date be advanced and the employee receives a "successful" or above rating on all essential job functions duties/objectives, which significantly impact performance, noted in the warning notice, the employee may require a short year planning stage and a short year review in order to move the employee back to the universal review date.

- B. The rater and employee should participate in drafting a work improvement plan. The work improvement plan should include a list of ways to improve the deficiencies and other appropriate performance related recommendations. In those instances where the rater and employee cannot agree upon the content of the work improvement plan, the rater's decision shall be final.
- C. During the warning period, the employee and the rater shall have regularly scheduled meetings during which they shall discuss the employee's progress. Documentation is required to verify that these counseling sessions were held. Copies of this documentation shall be placed in the employee's official personnel file and given to the employee upon request.
- D. If the employee's performance is rated "successful" or above, on all essential job functions duties or objectives, which significantly impact performance, noted in the warning notice by the end of the warning period, employment shall continue. If the employee is rated "unsuccessful" on any essential job function duty or objective which significantly impacts performance as noted in the warning notice by the end of the warning period, the employee shall be removed from the position immediately (i.e. terminated, reassigned, or demoted).
- E. Once a time frame for improving substandard performance has been given, the employee must receive a written appraisal prior to the end of the warning period or the employee will receive a "successful" rating by default.
- F. If an employee has been issued two warning notices within 365 day period and performance drops to a substandard level on any essential job functionduty/objective, which significantly impacts performance for a third time within a 365 day period, the employee shall be removed from the position upon the third recurrence of such substandard performance by issuing the "unsuccessful" appraisal. A warning notice is not required on the third occurrence.

Warning Notice of Substandard Performance

The requirements of a "Warning Notice of Substandard Performance" are:

- A. The notice shall be in writing, addressed to the employee, labeled as a "Warning Notice of Substandard Performance," and signed by the employee (witnessed, if employee will not sign).
- B. The notice shall list the job function(s) and/or objective(s)areas included on the employee's planning documentposition description that are considered "unsuccessful," with an explanation of the deficiencies for each job function and/or objective/duty.
- C. The notice shall include the time period for improvement and the consequences if no improvement is noted (i.e. terminated, demotion, or reassignment).
- D. The notice shall include a plan for meetings to discuss employee progress during the warning period.

A copy of the notice shall be given to the employee and placed in the employee's official personnel file.

Method for Determining the Overall Rating

The method used for determining the overall rating is based on a weighted system provided by the Office of Human Resources using a point value and range. During the planning stage the rater and employee should determine a weight for each individual job function and objective, when used. Performance characteristics will not be given a numerical score, but will be given a rating of "pass" or "fall."

At the end of the performance review period, the rater assigns a rating level to the individual job functions duties and objectives, when used. Computations are performed with the final numerical score determined.

Budget Request FY2014-15

Attached is the proposed budget for FY2014-15. The total budget is $5,231,077, which is the same funding level approved by the General Assembly for current fiscal year (FY13-14).

The deadline for submission to the State Budget Office is October 1, 2013. The document is formatted as follows. Line items are shown in the first column on the page followed by columns for Budget for FY12-13 and Actual Expenditures for FY12-13, Budget for FY13-14 and Budget Request for FY14-15.

Page 1 is the Summary of the General Fund appropriations and the Earmarked Fund revenues and expenditures. For FY2014-15 we are requesting the same amount approved for the General Fund Appropriations and Earmarked Funds for FY2013-14 ($1,859,011- General Fund and $3,372,066 – Earmarked Fund).

Revenue

The Barmarked Fund Projected Revenues were calculated using last year's actual receipts and a trend for each of the revenue accounts. Act 95, signed by the Governor on June 13, 2013 authorizes the Commission to retain fifty percent of the self-insurance taxes collected. We project the Commission will receive $2,400,000 as shown in line item Self Insurance Tax (Special Revenue). Total Revenue from Earmarked Funds is $4,768,000. The ($1,395,934) shown in line item Received or (Retained) — Fund Balance is a (negative) amount because it will be retained in the Fund Balance. The Total Rarmarked Revenues + Fund Balance for the operating expenses for FY2014-15 is $3,372,066.

Expenditores

The line items under the section Account Description are salaries, benefits and other operating expenses. Page 2 of the document, Consolidated, is consolidation of General Fund and Earmarked Fund line item expenditures by department. Page 3, General Appropriations, reflect line item expenditures by department in the General Fund. Pages 4-9, Enrmarked Funds, are line item expenditures by department in the Earmarked Fund.

On behalf of the staff, thank you for your support, governance and leadership which creates the synergistic partnership for the Commission to accomplish its mission of serving our stakeholders.
