Workers' Compensation Commission

Advisory Notice

December 14, 2020

In-person Hearings and Informal Conferences

Please be advised the Commission has amended the Advisory Notice posted on May 18, 2020 concerning the protocols for in-person hearings and informal conferences to include the following language:

- Individuals who previously tested positive for COVID-19 or have potentially been exposed to COVID-19, may attend a hearing in-person only after the following criteria have been met:
  - 1) 10 days have passed since the positive result or possible exposure occurred, or 7 days have passed since the positive result and a subsequent test with negative results was completed, AND
  - 2) They are free of fever (100.4 or greater) for 24 hours without the use of fever-reducing medicines, AND
  - 3) Their other symptoms have improved.

- Individuals with pending test results should not attend hearings.
