RE: Proposed Changes to R 67-1302
Regulation Document 4188

The Commission directed staff to amend the language in Regulation 67-1302 to provide the Commission more flexibility when developing the methodology for establishing a maximum allowable payment for medical services provided by medical service providers. To accomplish this objective, we proposed removing the language in the regulation referencing the use of a relative value and a conversion factor.

The Commission approved the Notice of Drafting on February 22, 2011, which was published in the State Register on March 25, 2011. The Commission accepted comments on the proposed changes until April 26, 2011. The proposed amendments were published in the State Register on June 24, 2011. The Commission received comments on the proposed regulation until August 8, 2011 and conducted a public hearing on August 15, 2011. The final proposed changes to R 67-1302 were approved by the Commission at a Special Business Meeting on September 12, 2011 and submitted to the General Assembly for approval on November 17, 2011.

A Senate Judiciary Subcommittee met on February 15, 2012 to consider the proposed regulation change. At the subcommittee meeting, the Small Business Regulatory Oversight Committee and the Small Business Chamber of Commerce spoke in opposition to the change expressing concerns about the unknown factor of actions of future Commissions. The SC Orthopaedic Association spoke in favor of the amendment. The SC Chamber of Commerce did not testify, however, in conversations with the Chamber staff prior to the subcommittee meeting they indicated similar concerns about the unknown factor of how future Commissions may act. The subcommittee voted to carry the matter over, commenting that it likely would not be approved under the current conditions. The House LCI Insurance subcommittee adjourned debate on the matter on March 6.

The Commission has two options. It may withdraw the regulations or it may take no further action in anticipation of the regulations being approved by no action of the General Assembly. I am of the opinion there is sufficient opposition to the regulation change the Senate would not allow the regulation to be approved by timing out.

Therefore, it is my recommendation that the Commission withdraw the regulation from consideration by the General Assembly. This may be accomplished by the Commission formally voting to take this action and submitting a formal letter to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Lieutenant Governor, the Chairman of the Senate Judiciary, the Chairman of the House Labor Commerce and Industry Committee and the State Register.

Re: Guidelines for Interpreter/Translators

At the Business Meeting on January 17, 2012 staff presented a report on the use of interpreters/translators during Commission proceedings. The Commission received the report as information and took no action.

Attached are proposed Administrative Guidelines for the use of interpreters/translators. Staff does not recommend the adoption of the guidelines in the form of a Regulation or Statute. Adoption of these guidelines will be for administrative purposes only.

Administrative Guidelines

Use of Translators/Interpreters During a Hearing or Proceeding before the SC Workers' Compensation Commission

WHEREAS, pursuant to South Carolina Code of Laws Section 42-3-20(C) the Commission has a duty to hear and determine all contested cases and, pursuant to South Carolina Code of Laws Section 42-3-180, to determine all questions arising under Title 42 of the South Carolina Code of Laws; and

WHEREAS, Article I Section 3 of the South Carolina Constitution states, in part, that "nor shall any person be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law, nor shall any person be denied the equal protection of the laws;" and

WHEREAS, many persons who come before the Commission are partially or completely excluded from full participation in the proceedings due to limited English proficiency or a speech or hearing impairment and it is essential that this communication barrier must be removed, as much as possible, so that these persons are placed in the same position as a similarly situated person for whom there is no such barrier; and

WHEREAS, it is the desire of the Commission to ensure that translators and interpreters should, to the extent possible, render a complete and accurate translation or interpretation, without altering, omitting or adding anything to what is said or written, and without explanation or summarization, while preserving the nuances and level of formality, or informality, of the speech.

THEREFORE, the Commission adopts the following guidelines to advise the parties and the Commission as to the policies and procedures that should be followed when translators or interpreters are necessary, to the extent that the circumstances allow.

- 1) All parties shall make a good faith effort to ensure that any interpretations or translations are rendered completely and accurately, without alterations, omissions, or additions to what is written or stated, and without explanation or summarization while preserving the nuances and level of formality, or informality, of the speech.
- 2) When a party finds it necessary to obtain the services of a translator or interpreter to assist with the handling of a workers' compensation claim, the party should, to the extent that the circumstances allow, make a good faith effort to obtain a translator or interpreter who possesses the necessary certifications, training and pertinent experience to render a complete and accurate translation or interpretation, without altering, omitting or adding anything to what is said or written, and without explanation or summarization, while preserving the nuances and level of formality, or informality, of the speech.

- 3) The Commission presumes an interpreter or translator who is certified pursuant to the South Carolina Court Interpreter Certification Program possesses the requisite certifications, training and pertinent experience; however, the Commission may, in its discretion, permit the use of uncertified interpreters or translators who possess sufficient training and/or experience, as the circumstances may require. Any interpreter or translator is expected, to the extent the circumstances allow, to comply with Rule 511, S.C.A.C.R., Rules of Professional Conduct for Court Interpreters (2006).
- 4) When a party finds it necessary to obtain the services of a translator or interpreter to assist with the handling of a workers' compensation claim, the party should, to the extent that the circumstances allow, make a good faith effort to ensure that the translator or interpreter is impartial, unbiased and refrains from conduct that may give the appearance of bias.
- 5) Translators or interpreters shall disclose any real or perceived conflict of interest. Specifically, an interpreter or translator shall disclose if he or she is a friend, associate, or relative of a party or counsel for a party involved in the proceedings; has served in an investigative capacity for any party involved in the case; if he or she, or his or her spouse or child, have a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that would be affected by the outcome of the case; has been involved in the choice of counsel or law firm for that case; is an attorney or an employee of an attorney in the case; has previously been retained for private employment by one of the parties to the case; or if there is any other reason his or her independence of judgment would be compromised in the course of providing services in the case.
- 6) After the interpreter's or translator's qualifications and any conflicts of interests have been disclosed, the parties may stipulate their consent to using the interpreter's or translator's services. If a party objects to the use of a translator or interpreter due to a perceived lack of qualifications or conflict of interest, the Commissioner will decide on a case by case basis whether the proffered interpreter or translator is sufficient.

-In order to accomplish the goals stated above, at a Hearing or other proceeding before the Commission where the services of an interpreter or translator is necessary, the interpreter or translator shall complete the affidavit shown as Attachment A, which will be included as part of the record.

-Furthermore, prior to the commencement of the translation or interpretation, the interpreter or translator will be asked, on the record and under oath, the attached list of questions regarding conflicts of interest shown as Attachment B.

-The parties and their attorneys shall make every effort not engage in private, off the record conferences with the interpreter or translator. Any private, off the record communication between the parties or their attorneys and the interpreter or translator should not address the substance of the witness's testimony or the issues in dispute. Upon request from the opposing party, the Commissioner may, in his or her discretion, permit cross-examination of a translator or interpreter regarding private, off the record conferences between the interpreter or translator and the parties or their attorneys regarding the substance of the witness's testimony or the issues in dispute.

Effective date:

Approved by the Commission this _____ day of _____, 2012.
